> BUILD WHAT MATTERS._

CHANGING THE WORLD, ONE HACK AT A TIME.

> Who We Are

NSH @RPI is a collaborative hackathon initiative hosted by the National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE) and the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE) at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Rooted in the missions of NSBE and SHPE, NSH @RPI is committed to expanding access, opportunity, and representation within engineering and technology.

> What Is A Hackathon?

A hackathon is an event where students develop technical projects in a collaborative environment. Students begin with an idea and complete a project over the course of 36 hours.

NSH @RPI is designed to be beginner-friendly and interdisciplinary, welcoming students from all technical backgrounds and experience levels.

> Why Sponsor NSH @RPI?

NSH @RPI brings together students passionate about engineering, software, AI, hardware, and emerging technologies. Sponsors have the opportunity to connect directly with student builders through mentorship, recruiting, workshops, judging, and technical engagement throughout the event.

By supporting NSH @RPI, companies help create a more accessible and collaborative space for innovation while gaining visibility within a growing technical community.

> Previous Hackathons

Previous NSBE and SHPE hackathons at RPI have brought together students from across the Capital Region to collaborate, innovate, and build community through technology, including participation from neighboring institutions such as the University at Albany (UAlbany). As NSH @RPI continues to grow, we are looking to further expand our regional presence and connect even more students, organizations, and industry partners across the Northeast.
